DOMESTIC ABUSE ACPO DASH TRAINING

TwelvesCompany

Day One: Identifying High Risk Domestic Abuse

Day one is an introduction to domestic abuse for all frontline professionals working with individuals and families. Delegates will examine;

- ✓ The Definition of Domestic Abuse
- ✓ The Prevalence of Domestic Abuse
- ✓ Four Typologies of Domestic Abuse
- ✓ Signs and Symptoms of Domestic Abuse (for adults and children)
- ✓ Barriers to Leaving Abusive Relationships
- ✓ The Cycle of Abuse
- ✓ The Dynamics of Power and Control – The Duluth Model
- ✓ How to Identify High Risk Factors of Serious Harm and Homicide
- ✓ Introduction to The Risk Process
- ✓ How and When to Share Information
- ✓ The Domestic Abuse Pathway - REACH
- ✓ Introduction to DASH

Day Two: DASH Risk Assessment Training

DASH is an evidence based risk assessment for Domestic Abuse, Stalking and Harassment and Honour-Based Violence (HBV)

Delegates draw on learning from Day One to establish the likelihood of the behaviour or risk occurring, the frequency with which it may occur, who it will affect and the extent to which the behaviour will cause harm. Delegates will examine the methodology and psychology behind each question on a DASH Risk Assessment, and gain context from the answers to inform the level of risk e.g. High, Medium or Standard.

The second day examines the risk management process, including the relevance and importance of legal information sharing and appropriate referrals to Multi Agency Risk Assessment Conferences (MARACs).

The training is set within the wider context of public protection, using many case studies to profile perpetrators and form links across all areas of violent crime to prevent serious harm and homicide.

PLEASE NOTE: Delegates on DAY TWO must have attended DAY ONE

Trainer Profiles

ANN FERGUSON BEd (Hons) QTS

Ann Ferguson has been working in education for the last 15 years having previously worked in Management. Ann has worked both as a teaching practitioner and as a parent support advisor based in Plymouth primary schools. Ann has a wealth of experience working within the field of abuse and child protection.

Ann was invited to join Martine Cotter Consultancy as a DASH Facilitator in 2014 and has since delivered this essential training to hundreds of professionals across multiple agencies.

Her enthusiasm for safety and early intervention drives Ann to reach high standards.

REBECCA KAT

Rebecca has been working for specialist sexual assault and rape services for the past 6 years, initially volunteering as a Crisis Worker at the first Third Sector Sexual Assault Referral Centre (SARC) in England and then as an accredited Independent Sexual Violence Advisor (ISVA). These challenging Home Office endorsed 'front line' roles equipped Rebecca with hands on experience of victimology, forensics, police protocol, court processes, the law, and above all, how a victim may respond in the immediate aftermath of trauma.

Rebecca has extensive training experience having worked for the Devon Child Abuse Protection Project, training Children and young people on how to identify abuse and sharing strategies to help them keep safe.

Rebecca was invited to join Martine Cotter Consultancy as a DASH Facilitator in May 2015

TESTIMONIALS

“Probably the best training session I have ever been involved with for any subject. Eye opening and very interesting. Becky was absolutely brilliant, and her knowledge was amazing of cases etc. I think everyone should do this training.”

“Ann gave a very clear presentation, with reference to case studies which made the training much more interesting and easier to understand. One of the best domestic abuse training sessions I have been on. Thanks.”

“Trainer delivered a difficult subject well.”

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Do I need to prepare?

No. Prior knowledge of Domestic Abuse, DASH or MARAC is not required. No research or homework is needed! If you have a disability, please inform the person booking the course so that appropriate preparations can be made to cater for your needs.

Should I bring anything?

You may wish to bring a notepad but you will receive a full copy of the PowerPoint presentations to be used as a future learning tool.

Will lunch and refreshments be provided?

Please ask the person booking the course but it would be advisable to bring cold drinks, snacks and lunch in case refreshments are not provided.

If your course is being held at REACH, hot drinks will be provided, therefore it is advised that you bring your own snacks and lunch.

What is the dress code?

Training is an opportunity to dress-down! Please wear something comfortable, warm and/or cool. Jeans are entirely acceptable!

What time will the training start and finish each day?

The training starts at 9am sharp. We will aim to finish no later than 4:30pm. If delegates arrive on time and return back from breaks and lunch on time, it will help everyone to leave on time.

Is there an agenda?

There is a course outline however the training has been designed to encourage flexibility and participation. There will be an opportunity to ask questions and discuss specific issues related to your profession. You get out, what you put in!

What happens if I have concerns after the training?

There is no doubt that the content of this training is heavy, profound and challenging. Many delegates have themselves experienced domestic abuse or know of someone who has. It is advisable that your organisation arranges additional supervision for you to discuss specific cases and/or personal issues. Unless it is essential, try to avoid returning to the office at the end of the day. It is important to reflect and unwind before heading home!

Will the course be affected by adverse weather conditions?

If snow is likely to affect driving conditions, the course may be cancelled and re-arranged for the next available date.
